BETTER TRANSPORTATION BY DESIGN

What role can federal agencies play in better integrating design and transportation? How can designers take a leading role in transforming the country's infrastructure?

Join Van Alen Institute in Washington, D.C. for the announcement of the winners of the Life at the Speed of Rail competition and a conversation about the role of design in creating a better high-speed rail system. Special thanks to the National Building Museum for hosting.

 In addition to winning entries, the event will feature a panel discussion among project advisers and guests:

CHRISTOPHER HAWTHORNE, LA Times
PETRA TODOROVICH, America 2050
MICHAEL LEJEUNE, LA Metro
KELLER EASTERLING, Yale University
ANDREW COLOPY & DIANA LIND, Van Alen Fellows

 June 24, 12:30pm–2pm, FREE
National Building Museum
401 F Street Northwest
