

--->LIFE--->AT--->THE--->SPEED--->OF--->RAIL--->

 AFTER CAR CULTURE:
DESIGNING THE NEW LA

Will high-speed rail change life in LA? How is design influencing transportation development on the West Coast?

Join Van Alen Institute at the Caltrans Headquarters in downtown Los Angeles for a presentation of winning entries from the Life at the Speed of Rail competition and a conversation about the role of design in California's high-speed rail future.

 In addition to winning entries, the event will feature a panel discussion among project advisers and guests:

THOM MAYNE, Morphosis
CHRISTOPHER HAWTHORNE, LA Times
MICHAEL LEJEUNE, LA Metro
DANA CUFF, UCLA cityLAB
JOHN RAHAIM, San Francisco Planning
ALISSA WALKER, GOOD Magazine
ANDREW COLOPY & DIANA LIND, Van Alen Fellows

 July 12, 4pm–6pm, FREE
Caltrans District 7 Headquarters
100 South Main Street
Los Angeles, California

→ rsvp@vanalen.org → vanalen.org/lasr

VAN ALEN INSTITUTE
PROJECTS IN PUBLIC ARCHITECTURE

GOOD

SUPPORTED BY:

ART WORKS.
arts.gov